

A young child with light brown hair is the central focus, captured in a close-up shot. The child is wearing a grey t-shirt and is in the middle of eating a round, golden-brown cookie. The child's eyes are slightly squinted, and their expression is one of contentment. The background is out of focus, showing a person in a striped shirt and a red plate, suggesting a social gathering. The overall lighting is warm and indoor.

Retirement Party
Captain Wayne Wylie

38 Years of Service
to the
City of Portsmouth
Virginia

Saturday July 9, 2005

*"Oppie" supervising the cooks
Jeff Terwilliger and Justin Wylie.*

Wayne admires the cake.

Opening gifts.

Wayne admiring and showing a new timepiece Vivian and daughter Mary.

Who's got the time?

Anybody know how to set this thing?

Al Jones, Janet McDaniel, Angelo Davis, Monica Wylie, Nikki Nowels, and Monty Gilbert.

"Bubba" Brett and family - Captain Jeff Terwilliger, Tracy Terwilliger, and Don Newberry.

Steve McGrath with Wayne.

Cutting the cake - No turning back now!

Isn't that my burger Gene?

Gary Rawls, Todd Elliott, Gene Stanley, and Cecil Whitehurst.

Congratulations from the troops.

Brian and Debbie (Wayne's daughter) speak with Jim Alexander, Sr.

Steve McGrath and family.

Gary Lassiter, Don Harrington, Sr., Cecil Whitehurst.

Jim Alexander and Clark Ryder.

Tracy & Chief Mark Outlaw Chief Don Newberry, Ret.

"Low" Ryder

Working crews joined the celebration.

"Old Dude" Al Jones gets a hug from Janet McDaniel.